

We use our resources in a responsible manner.

We see the diversity of languages, cultures and nations at all our company locations as a benefit.

We give high priority to occupational safety and health protection.

OUR VALUES AND CONVICTIONS

BLG LOGISTICS CODE OF CONDUCT

BLG LOGISTICS is committed to acting in an economical, ecological and socially sustainable fashion. Our code of conduct serves as an aid in complying with rules and laws so we will always be a reliable and fair partner for our customers, business associates and shareholders. Every single employee at BLG, no matter whether in coveralls, jeans or a suit, is responsible for our good reputation!

We advocate fair, unadulterated and free competition. Compliance with the currently applicable anti-trust and competition laws is a matter of course for us.

We treat the personal data of our employees and customers strictly confidentially.

We view open communication, trust, constructive cooperation and a high degree of personal responsibility as the basis of our success.

We are against corruption, conduct harmful to the company and unfair business practices and do not tolerate them at all.

We are committed to a working atmosphere that is characterized by mutual esteem, understanding for one another as well as open, respectful and fair dealings with each other.

We condemn discrimination of any kind.

You will receive the complete BLG LOGISTICS Code of Conduct in your native language from your local management.